

The cross display

The Cross display is a lightweight modular shelving system based on a single geometric cross shaped unit. The versatile wall mounted units can be combined into endless compositional possibilities. For a bit of contrast and additional functionality, white frosted glass displays are added to the cross composition. A flexible system, the cross works in the following environments: house: bookcase, retail: product displays, office: shelving, exhibitions: product displays. Versions with internal lighting are also available.

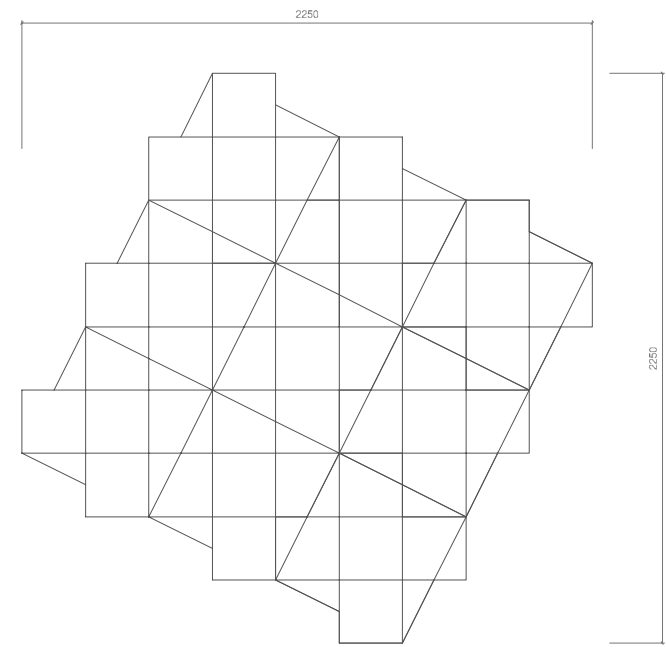

Materials and Finishings:

Polyethylene

Frosted glass

Dimensions:

L. 5250 D. 250 H. 2250 mm

White collection

